Guest Editors of WASJ Special Issue

“Learning Innovation and Intervention For Diverse Learners”

PROF DR AMLA SALLEH

Amla Salleh is a Professor of Guidance and Counseling at Faculty of Education, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), Head of Center of Education and Learner Diversity, and Coordinator of Guidance and Counselling Program, Faculty of Education UKM. She obtained her doctoral degree in Counselor Education and Supervision (1984) and M.A in Counseling & Personnel (1976) from Western Michigan University, Michigan USA. Professor Amla has been teaching in counseling field with special interest in career counseling. She has received several awards in teaching and research from various bodies at international and National level. Prof. Amla is also an active researcher, receiving various research grants from various agencies, and has published books, chapters in book, and journal articles. She is the chief Editor of International Journal of Diversity, editorial board member of several journals and indexed proceedings, and a reviewer of national and international journal articles. She has been an advocate of counseling movement in Malaysia, Honorary member of Malaysian Counseling Association, a registered counselor, and life Member of International Association of Educational and Vocational Guidance (IAEVG). She can be contacted at: amla@ukm.my

PROF DR ZURIA MAHMUD

Zuria Mahmud is a Professor at the Faculty of Education, University Kebangsaan Malaysia. She graduated from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, USA (Bachelors, 1983 Masters, 1985) and Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, USA (1997). Her working experience was as a school counselor in MARA Junior Science College from 1987 until 1991, and as an academic staff at UKM from 1991 till now. She was Head of the Learner’s Diversity Center in UKM from 2003 till 2006 and was the Deputy Dean of Graduate Studies and Internationalization in the Faculty Education, UKM from 2009 till 2011. Prof. Zuria specializes in the areas of Guidance and Counseling. At the graduate Level, the courses she teaches include Helping Relationship, Theory and Practice of Counseling, Group Dynamics, Family Counseling, and Adolescents Developmental Psychology. Prof. Zuria’s area of research and publication include Counseling Strategies, Family Relations, Human Development, and Learners’ Diversity. She conducted projects funded by the Ministry of Science and Technology, Ministry of Higher Education, PETRONAS, FELDA and UNICEF. The research activities has resulted products such as inventories, board and interactive games, some of which had won various recognitions at UKM, national and international exhibitions. Currently she has two research projects on Mentoring of Academics, and Helping International Students Adjust. The research focus has also been an attraction to doctoral students and has encouraged them to explore in the same direction. Prof. Zuria actively advocates the development of the counseling profession in the country. She has been an executive member of the COUNSELING ASSOCIATION OF MALAYSIA (Persatuan Kaunseling Malaysia), PERKAMA, since 2000, and is currently the Treasurer of the association. She can be contacted at: zuria@ukm.my

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DR. SALLEH AMAT

Salleh Amat is an associate professor at the Faculty of Education, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM). He graduated with Bachelor of Education (Counseling and Guidance) from University Putra Malaysia in 1992 and Master of Education (Counseling and Guidance) from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (1998). He continued his doctorate study in the field of Counselor Education and Supervision at the University of Wyoming, USA and completed his study in May 2006. His area of interest and expertise is guidance and counseling focusing on student personnel. Associate Professor Associate Professor Dr. Salleh is also a registered counselor in Malaysia. Associate Professor Dr. Salleh is actively involved in several researches under the national and university research grants. He is also writing for journal publication, conference proceeding and participating in national and local conferences. He is currently attached to the Centre for Academic Development as the Deputy Director for Training, which is responsible for the training and development of the academic staff at UKM. Dr. Salleh is also actively involved in social services and professional bodies. He is a member of Malaysian Counseling Association (PERKAMA) and the American Counseling Association (ACA). He is also a member of steering committee for IRCEP (International Registry of Counselor Education Program) which is responsible to recognize international counseling programs. He can be contacted at: sallehsa@ukm.my